

Cordially invite you to an online discussion

EU Diplomacy and the Arab-Israeli Conflict: How Can Europe Effectively Promote Peace?

Thursday, September 24, 2020

15:30-17:00 Israel Time, 14:30-16:00 CET, 8:30-10:00 EDT

Via Zoom

Opening Remarks:

Mr. Micky Drill

Project Manager, Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung Israel Office

Dr. Nimrod Goren

Founder and Head, Mitvim Institute

Chair:

Dr. Maya Sion-Tzidkiyahu

Co-President, IASEI; Director of the Program on Israel-Europe Relations, Mitvim Institute

Speakers:

Dr. Anders Persson, Linnaeus University (Sweden)

EU diplomacy and the Arab-Israeli conflict 1967-2019: Was the EU effective?

Prof. Joel Peters, Virginia Tech University (USA) and Mitvim Institute

The early decades of European diplomacy and the Arab-Israeli conflict

Prof. Raffaella A. Del Sarto, The Johns Hopkins University, SAIS Europe (Italy)

EU diplomacy and the Arab-Israeli conflict in recent decades

Adv. Gilead Sher, Chief of staff to former Israeli PM Barak and senior peace negotiator

An Israeli practitioner's view on the EU's role in peace negotiations

Respondent:

MK Nitzan Horowitz, Meretz, Chair of the Knesset Caucus for Israel-Europe Relations

Q&A

To register, please click here

The event will be held in English and will be recorded